GBIS ACI CERTIFICATION SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

APPLICATION

GBIS is teaming with CABMET and AAMI to help encourage HTM professionals to become certified. The board of trustees has approved a plan to develop a scholarship program to award financial support for individuals who qualify to take the ACI Certification exam.

The amount of the award will cover the cost of the Study Group and the ACI exam costs for the approved GBIS member. GBIS will reimburse approved applicants once the applicant becomes certified. You will be awarded a check at our annual conference.

CABMET has a very high rating of individuals completing the study group that has become certified. Details for joining the study group may be found on the CABMET.ORG website or email Dave Scott at david.scott@childrenscolorada.org. Be sure to enter GBIS as your organization to join the group free or at a discounted price. You may sign up for the study group by going to this link: <http://www.cabmet.org/index.php/register/forward/99/>. Study Group starts March 8, 2018 and all materials are on the website. Everything is downloadable or videos that can be watched. Self-study is also available.

You may find the ACI Certification requirements by going to the AAMI.ORG website.

Individuals wanting to participant in the GBIS ACI Certification Scholarship Program must fill out this application to be approved by the Board of Trustees. You may contact Horace Hunter, GBIS Executive Director at: gbisexecutive@gmail.com or call 229-224-4539 or Michael Ragan: Michael.ragan@piedmont.org or call 770-696-7487 if you have any questions.

Corporate Members may sponsor applicants and receive recognition on our website.
